Rules and Order are what separate sentence and sapience. To discard those ideals is to discard your very being. Rules must be followed so that order can be maintained. Order must be maintained so that everyone is given an equal chance of happiness.

PERSONALITY TRAITS

IDEALS

BONDS

Sven has a rigid worldview shaped by the trauma of losing his home. He believes in following the spirit of the law, but is still (reluctantly) willing to break them if it leads to more good overall.

ATTACKS & SPELLCASTING

Spell Slot : Sorcery Point

1 : 2
2 : 3
3 : 5

Twinned Spell: When you cast a spell that targets only one creature and doesn't have a range of self, you can spend a number of sorcery points equal to the spell's level to target a second creature in range with the same spell (1 sorcery point if the spell is a cantrip). To be eligible, a spell must be incapable of targeting more than one creature at the spell's current level.

Quicken Spell: When you cast a spell that has a casting time of 1 action, you can spend 2 sorcery points to change the casting time to 1 bonus action for this

Restore Balance: When a creature you can see within 60 feet of you is about to roll a d20 with advantage or disadvantage, you can use your reaction to prevent the roll from being affected by advantage and disadvantage.

Bastion of Law: As an action, you can expend 1 to 5 sorcery points to create a magical ward around yourself or another creature you can see within 30 feet of you. The ward lasts until you finish a long rest or until you use this feature again.

The ward is represented by a number of d8s equal to the number of sorcery points spent to create it. When the warded creature takes damage, it can expend a number of those dice, roll them, and reduce the damage taken by the total rolled on those dice.

Eldritch Adept: Eldritch Sight

Winged Boots: While you wear these boots, you have a flying speed equal to your walking speed. You can use the boots to fly for up to 4 hours, all at once or in several shorter flights, each one using a minimum of 1 minute from the duration. If you are flying when the duration expires, you descend at a rate of 30 feet per round until you land.

The boots regain 2 hours of flying capability for every 12 hours they aren't in use.

CHARACTER APPEARANCE

ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

Sven was the son of a guardsman in the great city of Emberhold. Placed directly between two warring nations, Emberhold was near constantly harassed by emissaries and messengers insisting that the great city take a side, but Emberhold's people were stubborn; they would sooner give their lives than their independence. For a time, both nations accepted this, although that peace was temporary.

Sven had prepared to take up his father's occupation since the day he could speak. Occasionally, his father would take him on patrols and narrate the many rules and regulations that allowed the city to function. Sven had memorised each and every law of Emberhold by the time he was thirteen, and had even recommended adjustments to the city council on occasion, although they never responded to his letters.

The day Emberhold burned was three days before Sven would be hired as a city guard under his father. The two warring nations had decided that if Emberhold would not surrender to one or the other, it was best to remove it from the battlefield entirely. The ironic part was that they both attacked on the same day, in near-perfect harmony.

The first nation had hired an occultist to create a temporary portal to the Abyss, letting countless demons wreak havoc on the city and its civilians. At the same time, the second kingdom began a siege of Emberhold's walls, preventing anyone from escaping. The result was as horrifying as it was effective. The city was completely destroyed within the day. Even with the incredible destruction on display, Sven managed to hide under the rubble of what was once his house until the army sieging his Emberhold left, although that still left the demons.

While attempting to escape the ruins of Emberhold, a lesser demon found him and Sven fought for his very life. It was then, after all of the trauma and stress of the past day caught up with him, that he manifested magic for the first time. He banished the demon from the prime material plane and eventually made it to the nearest city, where he could finally rest. But he would never forget what happened. Sven vowed that day that no entity, whether it be kingdom, man or demon would ever be allowed commit such an atrocity again. They would abide by his Rules, or else there would be Consequences.

Since then, he has been travelling the continent, looking for causes to help and laws to enforce. He even found a gang of misfits to travel with, although the word strange doesn't even begin to describe them. Even so, strange times make for strange bedfellows.
